Swen Swenson Joins ESA as Corporate Controller

San Francisco, CA, November 10, 2016: Environmental Science Associates (ESA), a leading environmental consulting firm, is pleased to announce that Swen Swenson has joined the firm as Corporate Controller. He will be based in the firm's San Francisco headquarters.

"As we continue to grow strategically it's imperative to have a strong corporate controller to ensure responsible stewardship of our resources and clear presentation of financial information to our leadership," said Albert Cuisinot, Chief Financial Officer. "Swen's proven record managing finances and assisting with informed decision-making and financial transparency will help improve and sustain our profitability as an employee-owned company."

Swen Swenson brings over 20 years of experience in financial management with professional services. He has experience in all aspects of the financial operations, including resource allocation, monthly reporting, forecasting, collections, accounts receivable, accounts payable and management of the finance department. Swen is passionate about professional growth for himself as well as his team and will work alongside our Chief Financial Officer and corporate accounting teams to ensure excellent project management and strong financial performance.

Swen Swenson holds a Bachelor of Science in accounting and a minor in finance from San Francisco State University.
